Circle Bay Welcoming Committee

Dear Prospective CBCY Resident of Unit No. ____-_____,

The primary purpose of the Welcoming Committee is to provide information that will help you enter into this condominium lifestyle and settle quickly and comfortably into our friendly community. We will try to answer any questions pertaining to Circle Bay. We do ask you to familiarize yourself with our rules and agree to comply with them before signing a purchase agreement.

Circle Bay is managed by volunteers. From our owners of record, we annually elect a Board of Directors which is charged with maintaining our facility and its financial requirements as well as exacting compliance with our Rules. This has worked well over many years. Our maintenance fees are reasonable. Special assessments have been few. Our hired maintenance staff, with the assistance of resident volunteers, works hard to sustain the lush and inviting environment that is Circle Bay.

Over the years, with the approval of the Board of Directors, Circle Bay has published and revised its Rules, the last revision being February, 2016. By complying with those Rules, virtually all of our residents have found that living here is a most tranquil and congenial experience.

We look forward to meeting you.

Respectfully yours,

Circle Bay Yacht Club Condominium Association, inc.

PREAMBLE (Sec. 01)

These Rules and Regulations (the Rules) are established in order to regulate the use of the facilities of Circle Bay. Their purpose is to promote the residential atmosphere of our community. Everyone should be familiar with the Rules and comply with them in order to promote peace and harmony so that all residents can enjoy living here. Common elements are those parts of the condo complex that belong to all owners and no alteration may be made by any owner without the Property Manager/Board approval. The Board of Directors are authorized and directed to enforce the provisions of the CBYC rules and regulations. The Board of Directors has the authority to interpret the rules and regulations and to adopt policies and procedures in order to clarify the application of its provisions. Our Board of Directors (the Board) is the administrator of the Rules. All questions or complaints must be put in writing, signed by a resident, and directed to the Board. The Board is not obligated to respond to more than one such letter per month, per unit. A Board member acting alone has the authority to waive a Rule temporarily. At the next meeting of the Board, this waiver may be ratified, modified, or canceled. Pursuant to our Articles of Incorporation (the Articles), the failure of the Circle Bay Yacht Club Condominium Association, Inc. (the Association) to enforce any covenant, restriction or provision of the Condominium Act (the Act), the Articles, the By-Laws or the Rules, shall not constitute a waiver of their right to do so at a later date.

RESPONSIBILITIES (Sec. 02)

Owners, lessees, and others shall comply with the Rules of the Association. Owners and lessees are responsible for their families, guests and employees

FACILITIES (Sec. 03)

The facilities are for the general use of all residents and guests. However, the Board may permit groups or individuals the temporary use of one or more of the facilities for scheduled events. Residents and their guests shall do nothing to impair the enjoyment of our facilities by others.

OCCUPANCY (Sec. 04)

The following restrictions apply to the occupancy of any condominium unit.

1. Each unit shall be occupied as a single family private dwelling.
2. No unit may be divided or subdivided into a smaller unit.
3. No one under the age of 18 may reside in a unit. (Exceptions)
4. At least one resident member of a family residing in a unit must be 55 years of age or older, except those in residence prior to September 13, 1988. (Exceptions)
5. Residency and occupancy shall be defined as "occupancy for any length of time."
6. Persons under the age of 55 years may purchase a unit, but are not permitted to stay overnight, until at least one resident member of the family residing in the unit reaches the age of 55 years. Consistent with the exceptions in the Housing For Older Persons Act and the Federal Regulations, the following exceptions to the 55 year limitation will be granted, if the subject unit occupancy, when added to the total unit occupancy since September 13, 1988 does not impair the requirement that 80% of such units are occupied by at least one resident who is 55 years or older.
 1. A person who becomes an owner by gift or inheritance.
 2. A surviving spouse of an owner.
 3. A person who owned a unit prior to September 13, 1988, but was not considered a resident of the unit on that date.

*References in Rules and Regulations stating Property Manager/Board will be understood as follows: Property Manager or Two Board Members.

A child under the age of 18 years may stay in a unit for no more than 90 days within a 12 month period. No child under the age of 18 years may stay in a unit overnight without an adult, aged 55 or older, in attendance. Occupancy by persons other than the immediate family (wife, husband, sister, brother, daughter, son, mother, father, stepmother, step-father, step-sister, step-brother, step-son, step-daughter, granddaughter or grandson) is restricted to a maximum of 14 days while the owner or lessee is absent, provided that the Board is notified, in writing, prior to said occupancy. Any stay more than 14 days, with or without charge, requires a valid lease, and lessee must receive prior approval by the Welcoming Committee. In any event, the leasing of a unit with or without charge for occupancy is permitted only once during any one 12 month period. These persons are required to register with the Welcoming Committee within 24 hours of their occupancy.

USE OF PROPERTY (Sec. 05)

No immoral, improper, offensive, or unlawful use shall be made of any unit or condominium property. Noise and sound must be controlled so as not to disturb other residents. Use of devices such as radios, dvd players, and other electronic devices are to be used with headphones when in common areas, an exception will be made when there is an approved gathering at the clubhouse, pool or deck. Rules, zoning ordinances and governmental regulations shall be observed at all times. If any part of a building, or the grounds or other real or personal property is damaged or destroyed, the person(s) responsible shall bear the entire cost of repair or replacement. This will include attorney's fees if litigation becomes necessary. If a resident has been notified by the Property Manager/Board of Directors that he/she are in violation of the rules and regulations of CBYC and the resident disagrees, he/she can make a written request to the BOD requesting an appeal. If the resident does not agree with the results of the appeal, he/she may submit a petition to the Board of Directors requesting that the dispute be resolved through a process of Arbitration. Cost of the Arbitrator would be shared equally by CBYC and the resident submitting the request for an Arbitration.

ACCESS (Sec. 06)

In the event of an emergency, the Board is authorized access to all units. It is requested that unit owners/lessees supply the Association with keys to their unit. Upon return, the office should be notified. The main water line shall be turned off during any absence of 24 hours or more. If a unit, with an open patio, will be unoccupied during the hurricane season, (June 1 – December 1) the resident shall remove loose appurtenances that could become a missile during a severe storm, i.e. wreaths and other decorative items, patio furniture, and other loose items. If this is not done, the building representative is authorized to remove and dispose of any loose items without recourse.

All contractors and subcontractors must register at the Association office prior to performing any work on CBYC premises. Evidence is required that they be licensed and insured.
